Ly bridge June 9. '45.

Dear Mrs. Chapman,

You call for assistance at yr annual L'ast found no response, precisely because hope seemed dead in the few true hearts around me and I could find no action and therefore I was silent lest my voice of despair should stir a discord in the glorious, annual anthem of thanksgiving— Now we come & ask for what we gave not and we hope for your ready & cheerful assistance— We are to have a Fair & Sale of refreshments in connection with the Convention of the 25. & 26— of June and we have no articles for dispersal at that time. Will some of the Ladies of your Society come, with such things as may be left unsold & make sale of them, on those days? If there are none of the friends who have leisure and you will trust us with the care of the articles, they can be forwarded with the price and we will warrant them to be sold or returned uninjured— Will you let me hear this week if possible?— Will you also give us the loan of your A. L. banner for ornamenting the Hall?—

With earnest respect

Yr. friend
